Mike,

Thank you for the fantastic keynote presentation! Our team thoroughly enjoyed your training and appreciated your humorous, energetic and practical presentations. Even some of our more seasoned sales professionals found great value in attending our event, with the takeaways of your inspiring, valuable tips.

Our company and our sales associates will earn more money as a result of the time you spent with us!

Thanks again for the wonderful job you did at our conference, and we hope you have a terrific 2015!

Sincerely,

Glenn Duckworth
