Mike Hourigan was our featured speaker at our recent annual convention. He addressed the subject of “Get What You Want Through Negotiation”. He did an excellent job of conveying this information to our audience. His material was current and applicable to a variety of our member businesses. Mixed in with some light humor, Mike gave our attendees many points with which to take back to their respective jobs. I would recommend Mike as a guest/featured speaker. He will make a meeting planner look great.
